NIGHT EXTRA

FIFTH EDITION

LISTEN, Children! You know Winsor McCay, the cartoonist and comic artist, who draws such pretty and amusing pictures, and who showed you the wonderful adventures of "Little Nemo?"

Of course, you all know Mr. McCay.

Well, the Sunday AMERICAN will offer you next Sunday, for the first time, an entirely new series of very interesting drawings by Mr. McCay.

This series is called: "In the Land of Wonderful

This series will show delightful people in a strange, fantastic land, such as children—and grown-ups, too—love to think about.

These pictures will take up a whole page in the comic supplement of the Sunday AMERICAN, and every picture on the page will be as interesting as you can imagine.

You will see the funny and queer adventures that can happen in "The Land of Wonderful Dreams." You can see

Wanted a King Wedding.—The body of an unknown man was found floating this afternoon off Tuft's wharf, Charleston, by the harbor police. The police description gives the man's age as about sixty-five years, 3 feet 9 inches in height, weight about 160 pounds, light complexion, gray hair, thin nose, thin lips, dark eyes, dark hair, dark mixed coat, black vest, white outing shirt and blue stripes turned down collar, black necktie with stripes. There is no evidence of foul play.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Flanagan. Miss Connolly wore a gown of white satin and a white felt hat with white ribbons and a white veil. The bride and groom.

Miss Connelly wears the same white, feathered hat which she wore when she was a child. Her hair is white. Her husband, who was white, was a Congressman from New York. The couple was his brother-in-law's best man. The couple was a silver set and Congressman and Mrs. Connelly have given them a collection of linen. There is no expense for any boy or girl who registers the appropriate amount of money to be paid themselves in the winter and this is especially true in Boston with the splendid facilities the city affords for such recreation.

It is my glad the AMERICAN has taken hold of this subject and is making the boy and girl River Basin a playground for the winter.

PACKEY CALLS OFF KELLY BOUT

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—All is serene in the Wolgast-McFarland fight, slated for Milwaukee on September 15. Paul Thiry, manager of Packey McFarland, called off his match with Les Kelly at St. Louis, but not until after a lengthy argument with Tom Jones, the guiding hand of Champion Wolgast.

Thiry ridiculed the talk that he was accepting the St. Louis offer as a loophole to get out of the Milwaukee contest, declaring that of all the fights that could be arranged for his star there is none that he would rather have.

"Why, where could I get more money, more glory and a better chance to win a title than right here," said Thiry. "True, no championship goes with this match, it being a no-decision contest, but it calls for a return go at twenty rounds, and I am sure that McFarland can put it over on the Cadillac star in twenty rounds just as easily as in ten. Packey is far better than the public gives him credit for."

Explains Match.

"I have been scored for something the St. Louis match. Fans have called me greedy and money-mad for taking $700 when I have a $7,000 end at stake in Milwaukee."

It is all easy to condemn, but I have been to the amazing and thrilling business for a long time, and pride myself on my ability. I know McFarland probably better than any man who ever had any dealings with him. When Packey trains in a gym he does not work his best.

He likes to show the spectators how fancy he is and he does not get the proper workout. He is more or less careless in these gymnasium bouts. Then, too, the fighters that work with him do not go after the Irishman he way a fighter in the ring would.

They know they are up against a little wonder and they take no chances. They go shyly and never once do they slam in as would a man who is out to win laurels. They know that they have no chance against the speedy stock trade fighter.

Kelly a Good Workout.

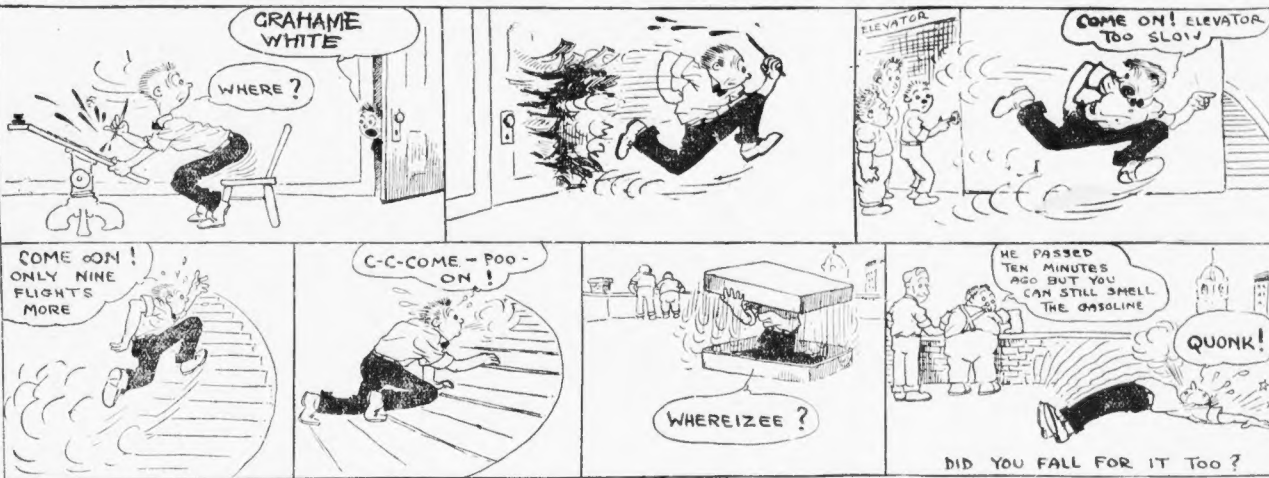

"Kelly would be easy picking for Packey. Leo thinks he can beat McFarland and naturally would go in to give him a fight. He will make Packey extend himself, which is the best kind of a workout. McFarland has fought many battles and his hands are still sound."

"He would not injure them in this match. Then, too, to make McFarland fight before a crowd of strangers means Packey giving forth his best. He is a proud chap in that respect. Again, a real fight like this Kelly match would train his sight, make his aim more perfect and his hitting stronger."

"I am sorry that Manager Jones and promoter Mulken could not see it that way, but I suppose Tom is not so far off as I do in this. I am sure that Packey will be an easy winner."

SUN WELCOMES TO BALL FANS

By R. W. LARDNER.

Today's fair weather was most welcome to the ball fans who have been waiting anxiously to give the Red Sox a welcome home after their long western trip and the forced postponement of yesterday's opening game with the Athletics.

The continuation of the downpour had swayed things to the schedule yesterday. Particularly is this true in the National League, for the Western clubs were visiting this part of the country for the last time.

To get rid of all the battles, a bunch of them would have to be transferred from the cities in which they were originally scheduled, and such transfers would require the consent of all the club owners. Little contest will not be forthcoming in any case.

In return in the Red Sox, if things come off according to program, the bugs will have a real treat. They will see the champions of the world, with their best pitcher working in one of the games. Looked up with the champions of Boston, a eighteen innings or more of interesting combat.

Mr. Bender is slated to pitch the first game and he will probably be opposed by Hal Coffman. In the second conflict, the pitcher is likely to be Eddie Cleaver and Louie Plank.

As Bender is a tough nut for any club to beat, and as Plank is usually a puzzle to the Sox, the latter are in for a strenuous day. But if Cleaver and Coffman do as they are asked, Boston won't get the short end of both scores.

There is not a slim chance that the Sox will have their regular lineup at work in this series. Harry Hooper is able to put on a uniform, but it doesn't look as if he would be in shape to perform for a few days. Riggert is slated to play the outfield today with Speaker and Lewis as sidekicks.

When the team was on home last time, Riggert was in left, with Hooper and Speaker performing, but there have been several switches since then, resulting from Lewis' return to the pasture and injuries to Hooper and Hendrickson.

The Athletics are in fairly good shape, although Connie Mack will say that his pitchers are working to suit him. Ed Collins got a bad bump on the nose in a practice game. However, nothing like a smashed up and bruised face will keep Eddie out of the lineup at this stage of the race.

Hack's Trainers in Row Over Way to Beat Gotch

By ED W. SMITH.

Sporting Editor of the Chicago American and Referee of the Gotch-Hackenschmidt Match.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—To send him in and make a rushing, boiling fight of it or to stay away and depend upon endurance and stamina—that's the big question right now in the camp of George Hackenschmidt, "Russian Lion."

And this question of how to handle the match with Frank Gotch next Monday afternoon caused something of a splitup on the North Side just after the Marquis of Queensberry had paid a visit to the famous foreign athlete with his retinue.

The distinguished Englishman, however, had nothing to do with the argument that started.

It came up during a discussion between the two trainers, and the argument was about the way to beat Gotch.

Amateur Boxers to Clash at Armory A. A. To-night

By JACK CONWAY.

If you are feeling "blue" or glum, go up to the Armory A. A. to-night and watch the amateur boxing tournament. And if you don't feel like a two-year-old after watching the youngsters muss each other up in over a score of bouts you are a candidate for the Oiler treatment.

There are four classes in to-night's show: 105, 125, 155 and 185 pounds. In all there are fifty-one individual entries.

The greater number of these ambitious youngsters are entered in the 105-pound class. This class has twenty-one entries, the 125-pound class has sixteen entries, the 155-pound class five and the 185-pound class nine.

The Tremont street club held an amateur show on August 4 and it was a great success. And to-night's show promises to be even more successful.

The future of professional boxing depends in no small measure upon the development of the amateur boxers. In the old days when there were almost a dozen fight clubs running in Boston at the same time, the youngsters had plenty of opportunity to show their worth. But those old days have long since faded and now the amateur boxing scene is always a poor one.

Man Who Sticks to His Job

By WEX JONES

He read a thousand verses, in the form of a thousand toasts, of the man who has pressed to success through the throng of the struggling underlings, that is to say, of his own.

Up-to-Date Jokes

Q. What did the father from the head of the line say to his son who was going to the office?

A. "What?"

Q. "What?"

A. "What?"

Brain Worked Quickly

The brain worked quickly, following the line of this question. How came it that he had so much to say about it? He actually took it from his house, long ago, meditating the matter, when opportunity should arise.

MAKE YOUR OWN HAIR TONIC

A SPECIALTY'S ADVICE

In a recent issue of the New York Herald published a special article on the value of the hair, in which was given the formula for a home-made Hair Tonic.

The "ABDO-BAND" holds the abdomen in the normal position and positively prevents the corset from riding up. It takes the strain from the hose supporters and prevents the tearing of the hose.

You will find the R & G "ABDO-BAND" Corset by far the most satisfactory relief from corset discomfort and inconvenience.
